

LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME FOR THE PUBLIC SERVICE

COURSE:

i Professionalism and Work Ethics

OVERVIEW

i Professionalism and work Ethics are obviously tied to success in the workplace. They play a leading role in our work lives. This course would no doubt assist public servants in delivering higher quality work and improve job satisfaction.

The Objective

- i By the end of this training course participants will be able to:
- Define workplace professionalism
 - Explain how workplace professionalism and work Ethics complement each other
 - Identify where employees may struggle at the workplace if they lack professionalism and good work ethics
 - Explain at least ten (10) professional characteristics
 - Exhibit a more positive attitude to their work

Target Participants

i This course targets thirty (30) public officers at varying professional levels in the public service.

Duration

i The course is slated for one (1) day

Method of Teaching

i Face to Face

Tutor

i Public Sector Reform Unit, Ministry of the Public Service, Consumer Affairs and Sports

Course Date

i Monday 5th June, 2023

Course Application Deadline

i Wednesday 24th May, 2023

Download the Application Form, complete and submit it to the Public Sector Reform Unit, Ministry of the Public Service, Consumer Affair and Sport, 2nd Floor Ministerial Building, Kingstown.